

MONROE COUNTY MEDICAL CENTER
COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP FOR GRADUATING HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Policy:

Monroe County Medical Center will offer graduating high school seniors pursuing higher education three scholarships (as described below), providing the recipients remain a full-time student for 4 consecutive years and maintain a C average.

Scholarships and Eligibility:

1. Future Healthcare Professional Scholarships
 - a. $1500 annually for 4 consecutive years; must be a resident of Monroe County and a student in the Monroe County School System at time of graduation or receipt of GED; must remain a full-time student, maintain a C average and pursue a degree in healthcare for the full 4 years. Failure to continue pursuing a degree in a healthcare career-related field will result in loss of scholarship after the change in major.
 - b. $1000 annually for 4 consecutive years; available to the child of a Monroe County Medical Center employee; must remain a full-time student, maintain a C average and pursue a degree in healthcare for the full 4 years. Failure to continue pursuing a degree in a healthcare career-related field will result in loss of scholarship after the change in major.
2. General Scholarship
 - a. $1000 annually for 4 consecutive years; available to the child of a Monroe County Medical Center employee; must remain a full-time student, maintain a C average; may pursue a degree in any field of study

Application Procedures:

1. Students interested in applying are required to complete the attached Application for Scholarship Consideration, including a copy of a transcript to include ACT scores, list of Leadership information (clubs/organizations including offices/positions held, other extra-curricular activities and employment) and a typed or written statement (150 words or less) concerning your future plans.
2. The Education Committee will review each application. Applicants may be asked to interview with the Committee to aid in the selection process. If there is more than one applicant competing for the scholarship, the Committee will rank order the applicants.
3. Selection will be based upon academic performance (one fourth), demonstrated leadership ability (participation in school functions and clubs, participation in civic organizations, etc.) (one fourth), statement of future plans (one fourth), and economic need (one fourth). Economic need will be met by: (1) Evaluation of applicants described need and (2) Discussion during the final selection by the committee.

Tuition Assistance:

1. The hospital will provide scholarship assistance to the selected applicants who are enrolled at an accredited state institution providing the recipient remains enrolled (4 years consecutively), attends full time classes and maintains a C average.
2. After completing the semester, the scholarship recipient must forward a copy of the final semester grades, along with enrollment verification for the next semester.

NOTE: All applications must be submitted, in a sealed manila envelope, to the administrative office of Monroe County Medical Center no later than 4:00 p.m. on Monday, April 1, 2024.
